The News in Brief.

According to the advices by the Anglo Saxon, it appears that Sardinia will not consent to any settlement of the Italian imbroglio favoring the restoration of the deposed rulers of the Duchies, and the Paris Constitutionnel states, authoritatively no doubt, that the Emperor will literally fulfill his Villa Franca agreement on this point, but if he "should not succeed in uniting the princes and their people it is not his intention to force either the one or the other."—The only item of interest from England is that the Great Eastern will be ready to leave for Portland on the 15th inst.

LEIGH HUNT, the world-famed author, died in London on the 28th ult., in the 75th year of his life.

Two hundred persons were killed by an earthquake in Italy.

The English markets were dull, but quotations unchanged.

The Grain Trade.

The week opened with an active and rising market; wheat full 2c higher. Receipts, including flour, amounted to 44,513 bushels; shipments light; the market closed steady. There were sales of better than 1,000 bbls of flour at $3,75 to 4,12 1-2 for good to choice country Spring Extra. At New York, choice brands of flour declined 5 to 10c, while common brands were buoyant and firm, with sales of some 10,000 bushels; wheat unchanged. The Buffalo market, both for flour and wheat was reported firm, with a good demand for the latter.

Republicans to Your Posts!

We publish elsewhere, the appointments made by several of the prominent candidates on the Republican State Ticket, to address the people, at different points, during the ensuing two months. We hope that the friends of the good cause, everywhere, will take pains to disseminate these notices, and to "warn out" all the voters in their respective neighborhoods, to come and hear. We have everything to gain and nothing to lose, by the full, free and fearless discussion of our principles before the great body of the electors of Wisconsin.

The Campaign in Minnesota.

The partizan and corrupt means resorted to by the Democrats to carry Minnesota at the approaching election, have induced the Republicans to make a vigorous effort to defeat the Sham-Democracy and oust the corruptionists from power in that State, which we trust will be crowned with merited success. We observe by our exchanges that SCHUYLER COLFAX, F. P. BLAIR JR., GALUSHA A. GROW, CARL SCHURZ, and Senator DOOLITTLE, are amongst the orators announced to address Republican meetings in different portions of the State during the present month. The first three of these gentlemen have already been in Minnesota about a week, and on Saturday our fellow-townsman, CARL SCHURZ, took his departure for the scene of action.

Old "Abe" after Him.

We see it stated that the Hon. ABRAM LINCOLN, who held such a political stump tussle with DOUGLAS in Illinois, will speak at Columbus, Ohio, on Friday afternoon, the 16th, and thence continue in DOUGLAS' tracks throughout the State, wiping out the sophistry and misrepresentation of the Little Dodger as effectually in Ohio, as he did in Illinois.

THE DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE FOR STATE TREASURER AT HOME.—A reliable correspondent writing from Ozaukee, says: "The Republicans may rest assured that Mr. SILVERMAN can not get over two-thirds of the Democratic vote of Ozaukee county, and I very much doubt his getting half of it. We are going to give the Republican ticket a larger and heartier vote here this Fall than ever before." From the standing of Mr. SILVERMAN at home, we think there can be very little doubt of his election—to stay there.

SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION.—The Grant County Witness publishes the following strong endorsement of Mr. PICKARD's nomination for State Superintendent:

> The Republicans nominated Josiah L. Pickard, of this place. Aside from the local pride naturally felt in having assigned to one of our citizens so prominent a place on the State ticket, we desire to see Mr. Pickard elected because of his eminent qualifications for that office, and do not wonder that even Democrats should say that the yearnestly desire his election, for while never afraid to let his sentiments be known, and always on the side of Freedom and Honesty, earnestly devoted to Republican principles, he has never been a noisy politician. Of long and most successful experience as a teacher, always laboring to promote the cause of education in the State, and possessing so much public confidence as to be chosen of all others, in spite of his unassuming modesty, to co-operate with Chancellor Barnard and Supt. Draper in revising and amending the school laws of the State; the people of Platteville and of this region know him to be a man of many and varied talents, of sound judgment, a man of deeds rather than words, of unbending integrity, firm in his adherence to what he deems right, most faithful in the performance of what he undertakes. While we are most reluctant to spare him, even for a little time, from the personal direction of the Academy here, for which he has gained so high a reputation, we feel that "the greatest good of the greatest number" demands the sacrifice. And, sure that the people can have no better servant in the place for which he is nominated, we look for a nearly unanimous vote for him hereabouts, and hope for his election by a large majority.

GREAT DESTRUCTION OF HAY BY FIRE.—We are informed by Robert Robinson, that some 200 tons of hay, on the main river and Cedar Creek, west of Manitowoc, were destroyed by fire on Tuesday. The hay belonged to different persons in this and Calumet county. The fire was the result of accident or carelessness.—Manitowoc Herald, Sept. 8.

Remainder of appointments in Jefferson, Walworth, and Rock to be announced hereafter.

Appointments for the Hon. S. D. HASTINGS, the Republican candidate for State Treasurer, and JAMES. H. HOWE, the Republican candidate for Attorney General, will be announced in the course of a few days.

The opponents of Messrs. NOBLE, HARVEY, HASTINGS and HOWE, upon the Democratic ticket, are respectfully invited to be present at these meetings, and take part in them.

Hon. JAS. R. DOOLITTLE, of Racine: Hon. CHAS. DURKEE, of Kenosha; Hon. TIM. O. HOWE, of Brown; CARL SCHURZ, of Milwaukee; Hon. JOHN F. POTTER, of Walworth; Hon. CHAS. BILLINGHURST, of Dodge; Hon. C. C. WASHBURNE, of La Crosse, Hon. LUTHER HANCHETT, of Portage, and other prominent Republican speakers are also expected to address the people at various points in the State during the canvass. A list of their appointments will be announced as soon as it can be arranged.

The Central Committee in the several counties are requested to give immediate notice, and to make proper arrangements for the above meetings. The Republican press in the several localities where meetings are to be held, will also confer a favor by publishing a timely announcement of the same.

By order of the Republican State Central Committee.

HORACE RUBLEE, Chairman.

People's Theatre Destroyed by Incendiarism—Republican Meeting Burned Out.

We stop the press to announce that while Mr. Colfax was speaking, near the close of his remarks, the theatre was discovered to be on fire underneath the Stage on which he was standing, apparently in the extreme back part of the theatre. The alarm was given at once, and Mr. Colfax immediately closed his masterly speech.

The audience retired in good order, however, and in a moment the building was cleared. It was fortunate, too, for barely had the last person crossed the threshhold, ere the angry flames, impelled by the wind which was blowing briskly at the time, filled the whole building, and in a few moments only, it was entirely destroyed. The building was a light "balloon frame," with canvass top, and the flames licked it up like shavings.

The Fire Department were on the ground as soon as possible, and directed their efforts to saving the adjoining frame buildings.—The old Pioneer Hook and Ladder Company Truck House, belonging to R. C. Knox, was destroyed, but the next frame carpenter and paint shop was saved.

The Theatre was built in 1857, and was the property of V. Guerin, Esq. Value probably $1,500. Several hundred dollars worth of scenery belonging to ex-manager Van Liew was also destroyed. R. C. Knox's loss is about $500.

The fire was the work of an incendiary, as all who saw it first agree. When first seen a bucket of water would have quenched it. It was kindled in the unfrequented recesses under the stage.

We cheerfully acquit the Democracy as a party of this vile act. But is it not deplorable that any party should be disgraced by such fiends in human shape, as these partisan incendiaries unquestionably are?

That lives were not lost is a wonder—and most assuredly there would have been such loss had the fire occurred in the middle of the meeting, when the greatest crowd was present.

When the alarm was given, the fact of there being a fire at all was disputed by some of the audience, and only a portion therefore immediately left; so that there was no impetuous rush out to trample the weaker under foot. As it was, all got out safely, but not a moment too soon.

The Republicans of St. Paul having had their principal place of meeting thus burned, must now resort to the open air—but there is one satisfaction—they can still fill the house!

So our Democratic friends will make nothing by this action of some of their "fellows of the baser sort.—St. Paul Minnesotian, Sept. 9.

A STRANGER.—About four o'clock yesterday afternoon, a stranger that has not visited us since the second of July last, in the form of a shower of rain for over an hour, paid us a visit. The Milwaukee Daily Sentinel's barometer—a pig with straw in his mouth—was right this time, but so far as corn and potatoes are concerned, it is like the Irishman's chicken—spoke too late.—Ozaukee Advertiser, Sept. 10.

HE is no mean philosopher who can give a reason for half what he thinks.

THE CITY.

To our Business Men.

Now is the time to bring your advertisements in. The arrangements for the State Fair are in rapid progress and we may expect an unusual influx of visitors from all parts of the State and from Chicago. During the exhibition an extra edition of the SENTINEL will be printed daily.

Exhibitors having circulars, cards, posters, or any description of job work will find it to their advantage to call at the SENTINEL office at as early an hour as possible. Our facilities for job printing are unsurpassed and our terms reasonable.

Opening of Albany Hall.

The Milwaukee Musical Society have determined to give a number of Operas in Albany Hall, commencing with WEBER's Der Freischutz, on which occasion there will be a grand opening festival, on the new boards of this theatre. We are informed that the 22d is set for the occasion, and that the Musical Society are making every endeavor to bring out the piece in a truly creditable manner.

We sincerely hope, for the honor of our city, that the Association will be liberally supported in this undertaking. They have been put to a great expense, and the sole object is to raise funds for the company. As we have repeatedly said, the Milwaukee Musical Society contains a great amount of vocal and instrumental talent, and all that is needed is a liberal support on the part of our citizens. Der Freischutz is a brilliant opera, with a very difficult score and a libretto of sufficient power for almost any actor and we look forward to its production by Mr. BALATKA with considerable pride.

Tickets for members (to the first Opera) $1. Single tickets 50 cents. The number will be limited to eight hundred, and will be ready on the 19th.

BY DINT of hiring a girl to wake her up, and by a preparatory retirement several hours before a seasonable hour, ANGELINE managed to get up the other morning early enough to attend the Market on Division street. She thinks the visit paid, if not in a strictly commercial sense at least in a store of experience. Her account of it is interesting. We intend, some time, to go to bed a day before hand, so as to get up and see the sights.—(Morning items are like inverted umbrellas—very difficult to manage.) According to ANGELINE there must be a vast library of human nature—well worth the perusing, in Division street of a morning. A circulating library, mind you. A fund of Cruikshank-y bodies and Hogarthic-faces, Dickensonian bargains struck, and as much advertising over a peck of potatoes and a bunch of beets as is customary to spend on a patent safe or a sewing machine, only the puffing in one case is direct, home-made, authentic wind.

The row of shanties that by some cohesion of their own, have appropriated the general name of market—are mere candle boxes turned on their sides—but the mob of baskets and kettles that swarm about them of a morning are indications of the business transacted therein. Here is the woman who churns her own butter and brings it in on her head. Here is the woman who lays her own eggs—(by proxy) and raises her own cabbages, and these women cover their wares with rectangular laudations, obsolete recommendations that drop out of their great mouths like hieroglyphics, and with their hands on their hips murder the President's English when you stop to talk with them. Fine old jolly yeowomen, who anchor themselves every morning in a bank of greens and pour their Teuton eloquence out to the unappreciative crowds, and before the sun has crept up to the meridian mark on the blue dial plate they have sold out and gone. The "variety fair" is dissipated, and naught remains but the flies buzzing their impatience for another morning to come with its honey and lamb and butter-milk. ANGELINE advises those who go to the market to go hoopless—advice that arises from her coming home one day with her pink skirts bearing the life-like impression of a trout, sailing after a hugh grease spot of butter. Said portrait having been imparted by a careless boy.

SATURDAY NIGHT, the Captain and Mate of the propeller Lady of the Lake, made a complaint at the police station against four colored individuals named ELISHA HILL, EDWARD DYER, JOHN STEWART and JOHN ENNI, for fighting, and they were arrested, brought to the station and locked up until Monday morning, when instead of the complainants appearing against the prisoners, it was ascertained the vessel had sailed Sunday afternoon. The colored individuals seemed to feel more aggrieved that they had been committed, and it was pronounced a dark and dastardly joke, especially, as was also stated, the Captain owed the quartette a certain amount of wages.

LA CROSSE AND LA CRESCENT BANK.—A sound bank, amongst the numerous wild-cat and shin-plaster concerns that flourish in the young State of Minnesota, is worthy of a passing notice. Such an institution is the La Crosse and La Crescent Bank owned by our fellow-townsman DANIEL WELLS JR., who, by a card in another column, holds himself personally responsible and liable to redeem it's bills as required by law. Mr. WELLS' stands A No. 1 amongst our business men, and though people should be careful what Minnesota money they take just now, there is no risk in taking the bills of the La Crosse and La Crescent Bank.

YESTERDAY was a dusty day, yea—a very dusty day. We can not tell how many small hurricanes swept down East Water street and rubbed the sharp corners off the stores and banks. It would not be safe to say there was not one continued hurricane from morning till night, that Sisyphus-like, kept rolling the clouds of dust down Spring street hill for the mere pleasure of rolling them back. The anxious eyes that all through the worst of it were watching the old telegraph poles in East Water street, with many hopes that they would be torn down, or carried off, like Mother Goose's broom stick, gave up looking, as night came on, not because their patience gave out, but because they were full of dust.

BODY OF A MAN PICKED UP.—The body of a man, identified as DUNCAN MCLAUGHLIN, was picked up from the river by FREDERICK BURKMAN, nearly opposite the N. Transportation Company's dock on Sunday. MCLAUGHLIN was formerly a fireman on the steamer Gazelle, and was last seen on the 7th somewhat intoxicated. It is supposed he fell into the water and was drowned. The body when recovered was in a rapid stage of decomposition. He leaves a wife and child in Canada.

THEATRICALS DURING THE FAIR.—We learn from Mr. WALL that the manager of the National Theater at Detroit, is coming here, during the State Fair week, with a very strong company, and will perform every evening. He has leased Albany Hall for ten nights.

THIS morning, Tuesday, Sept. 13th, the Chattel Mortgage sale on Marshall St., will positively take place. So says CALEB WALL.

Arrival of the Great Eastern—Grand Excursion!

DETROIT & MILWAUKEE RAILWAY,
General Western Agency,
MILWAUKEE, Sept. 9, 1859.

The mammoth steamship Great Eastern is expected to arrive at Portland the last of this month. Due notice of the exact time will be given as soon as known. The "Detroit and Milwaukee Railway Company" will be prepared to issue very cheap Atlantic Excursion tickets, to Portland and return.

H. O. WILSON, Gen'l West'n Agent.

THEN AND NOW.—In the winter and spring of 1846 we were domiciled in a little two story building, on East Water street, in Milwaukee, near the Walker's Point Bridge.—Three business lots adjoining—25 feet front, each—were then offered us for $300. Upon the occasion of our recent visit there, we were told by a gentleman owning a block of buildings on the opposite side of the street, that those lots would now bring under the hammer of the auctioneer, at least $3,000.

Milwaukee then contained not quite 10,000 inhabitants. Now it has near 60,000. One-third, or more, we should judge, of the present business portion of the city stands upon what was then an impassable marsh, on which the mud and water was some eight or ten feet deep. And where now are shown thousands upon thousands of dollar's worth of goods; where is heard the clatter of wheels, the hum of machinery, and the hammer of the mechanic, we have spent many an hour gliding among the rushes with a canoe, in the bayous of the Milwaukee and Menomonee rivers, with a gun and water-spaniel for companions, the former of which did us service in bringing down the ducks, and the latter in fetching them to the canoe.—Grand Rapids Eagle.

FIRE ALARM YESTERDAY.—An alarm of fire, for the Second District, was sounded yesterday afternoon, and the Department, through clouds of dust, hurried up to the northwest quarter of our city. The fire was in the grass, brush and fences, on the Sam Brown tract, in the Ninth Ward, and everything being as dry as a tinder-box, much apprehension was felt that the flames would spread into the "settlements." But no such calamity had occurred, up to a late hour last evening, and as the wind was subsiding, we hope that the fire will have wasted itself in the grass and rubbish.

NEW YORK PAPERS.—Messrs. BAMFORD & BALDWIN, the enterprising news agents, at the M. & M. R. R. depot, have placed us under obligations for late New York papers. Since the Detroit and Milwaukee Railway has had the carriage of the North-western mail, we get our New York papers one day earlier than previously, and the News dealers find it a difficult matter to get anything "in advance of the mail."

PERSONAL.—Dr. S. BURNHAM, who has followed his professional occupation as Dentist in this city, for ten years past, with ability and success, is about to remove to Cleveland; having disposed of his interest here to his late partner, Dr. FAVILL. We can cordially reccommend Dr. BURNHAM to the good people of Cleveland, as a skillful practitioner and an excellent citizen.

LOST A LAND WARRANT.—Mrs. RUHN, living on East Water, near Buffalo street, lost a land warrant a few days ago, which she states was taken from her trunk. It was filled out for 160 acres, and was the additional pay for services rendered by her husband in Mexico during the war. Mrs. RUHN made her statement to the police, but as yet no trace of the missing document has been obtained.

THE TIME PIECE that looks over the edge of VAN COTT's building has lost its time honored character for veracity. It asserts with the most ludicrous pertinacity that it is half-past six—and intends to stick to the point until people believe it. For COTT's sake let it be fixed.

BODY OF AN INFANT FOUND.—Sunday the body of an infant, not more than a day old, was found on the bank of the Milwaukee river, just above the new tannery. It was taken to the police station, and after an inquest, a verdict was rendered in accordance with the above facts.

RENTS.—J. S. FILLMORE has a small house on Knapp street at $10 per month; also a good house corner of Knapp and Milwaukee streets at $12 per month; a good brick house on Wisconsin street, rent $200 per year.

BAMFORD & BALDWIN, at the M. & M. Depot, keep all Eastern Dailies and Weeklies, Harper's Monthly, the Atlantic and Ballou's. They furnish the latest news ahead of mail, and can supply the SENTINEL to all who desire it.

DIED:

In Jonesville, on the 3d instant, aged 32 years, ALANSON JERMAIN, Esq., Junior proprietor of this paper.

Our brother was a man of high, unbending character—frank and impulsive in his expressions of opinion, and universally respected by a large circle of friends. As a practical printer, he had few superiors; and his scientific and agricultural articles for the Expositor, showed a mind of talent and energy, which, had it been directed more to composition, would have given him a high position as a writer. His memory is indelibly graven on our heart, and his innate nobility and generosity will never be forgotten by those who knew him. He was buried at Jonesville, and his funeral was attended by nearly the entire population of that village. The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. Mr. STANLEY; Rev. Mr. BUCK assisting in the exercises, to whom, and other friends at Jonesville, who watched our brother in his last moments, we return the thanks of our family.—Adrian (Michigan) Expositor.

The deceased was a brother of T. D. JERMAIN, one of the proprietors of this sheet. He had warm friends in this State, and his loss will be felt by many who were outside of the subscription list of the Expositor.

TELEGRAPH!

REPORTED BY THE N. Y. ASSOCIATED PRESS FOR THE DAILY SENTINEL.

Arrival of the Ocean Queen.

NEW YORK, Sept. 12—3 P. M.

The steamer Ocean Queen, from Havre, Aug. 31st, has arrived here. She experienced heavy westerly gales for three days. The steamships Anglo Saxon, for Quebec, and the Kangaroo, for New York, were detained at Liverpool on account of bad weather.

The American ship Ben. Bolt, from Havana, bound to Falmouth, was wrecked at Brendoz on the 25th ult.

The whole amount of the Russian 12 million loan had been subscribed, and exchange on St. Petersburgh had fallen 3 per cent.

A Bavarian loan for the purpose of defraying the military expenses of the country, had been issued at 98 1-2 per cent.

Nothing of importance was known respecting the doings of the Zurich Conference.

Advices from Athens report the dissolution of the Greek Chambers.

Arrival of the Anglo Saxon.

FARTHER POINT, Sept. 12—3 P. M.

The steamship Anglo Saxon passed this point yesterday, afternoon, and evening prevented the transmission of the intelligence received from her.

The steamer Nova Scotia had arrived at Liverpool.

The crew of the ship Ben Bolt, reported as wrecked by the Ocean Queen, were saved.—The vessel was insured in London. She was on a voyage from Trieste to London, with a cargo shipped at Havana.

A late telegram from Berne says the reports of proceedings of the Zurich Conference continue to be contradictory; but there is every reason to believe that the Sardinian plenipotentiary will not affix his signature to any practical document which favors the return of the deposed rulers of the Duchies.

ITALY.—No change has taken place in Italian affairs. A deputation from the National Assembly of Modena had gone on a special mission to the Emperor Napoleon.—The people of Naples are much excited in consequence of the high price of corn.

FRANCE.—The Emperor remains in retirement in the Pyrenese. It is rumored that he will shortly proceed to Cherbourg and pay a second visit to the camp at Chalons.

The Paris Constitutionel, in a leading article, says that the Emperor will literally fulfill his Villa Franca agreement for the restoration of the former reigning Princes. But if he should not succeed in reuniting the Princes and their people in mutual accord, it is not his intention to force either the one or the other.

ENGLAND.—The directors of the steamer Great Eastern have declined Mr. Lever's last offer, and their original programme will be carried out. The vessel has been closed to the admission of the public, and was to leave the Thames in a day or two, and be ready to leave for Portland, Maine, on the 15th of Sept.

Leigh Hunt, the celebrated author, died at London on the 28th ult., in the 75th year of his age.

ITALY.—The town of Sona, Italy, has been visited by an earthquake, causing a large destruction of property; 200 persons were killed and a great number injured.

Later from Mexico.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 11.—3 P. M.

Mr. McLane, Minister to Mexico, arrived here to-day, having left Vera Cruz on the 1st inst. Our Government had previously granted him two months leave of absence.

Reliable accounts just received, mention that Senor Farente, who held a cabinet office under Comonfort's administration, has been appointed Minister of Foreign Affairs, the duties of which were heretofore discharged by Senor Ocampo, who remains in charge of the Home Department. Under the constitutional government, all our Consuls, with exception of Black, at the City of Mexico, are everywhere officially recognized.

Most friendly feelings are expressed by the Liberalists for the United States, from which they expect assistance in their struggle with the Reactionists. Americans in Mexico, however, utter their surprise that so much indifference is manifested in this country toward the Liberal party, who continue to be enthusiastic, animated by hope of success. The immediate want of money alone is crippling their efforts.

Notwithstanding this, troops continue to be raised for operations against the city of Mexico.

McLane had returned without a treaty, but the matters of interest between the two countries are such as to leave no doubt of an early accommodation. If Leredo had been in Vera Cruz, it it probable, according to accounts from that city, a convention or treaty would have been concluded.

Eight of the crew of the Brooklyn had been tried for desertion—running away with the ship's boats and leaving her among the breakers.

It is reported in Vera Cruz that Miramon had called a Junta at the capital to appoint a Vice President or substitute, as he himself contemplated taking field against Degoleda; who was at San Luis Potosi organizing his forces, which amounted to about 12,000.

Celebration at Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 12—3 P. M.

The forty-fifth anniversary of the Battle of Baltimore is being celebrated to-day with great spirit. The streets are crowded with people, the whole military force is out on parade, and flags are displayed from all points. The Old Defenders will dine at Green Springs. There are several visiting military companies in the city, one from York, Pa.,—the Worth Infantry.

Illinois State Fair Closed.

FREEPORT, Sept. 10.

The Illinois State Fair closed to-day. It was successful. The $3,000 prize for the steam plow was not awarded on account of the condition of the ground, when Fawkes made his trial before. Executive committee trial now stands adjourned until Fawkes returns from the American Institute, New York, where he is engaged to exhibit.

Fire in St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 12—3 P. M.

The fire yesterday was more disastrous than was at first reported. Loss by Gay & Co., probably reaches $50,000, upon which there is an insurance of $40,000. Total loss by fire, upwards of $80,000.

LATEST NEWS!

BY LAST NIGHT'S REPORT

Additional by the Anglo-Saxon.

FARTHER POINT, Sept. 12—9 P. M.

The Isle of Man is connected by telegraph with England. Telegraph communication with Malta has been established.

A Cabinet council unexpectedly summoned for the 29th had given rise to various speculations. It was generally supposed that the meeting had reference to the new phase of the Italian question.

FRANCE.—Speech made by Count De Morury attracted much attention, being regarded as an enunciation of the views of the Emperor; the Count endeavored to show that the English apprehensions of a French invasion were groundless, and that France was desirous of cementing the alliance existing between the two countries. Le Constitutionnel has an article repudiating in strongest terms the fratricidal policy of a war with England.

PARIS.—The Paris flour market had rather more firmness, and prices were tending upwards; wheat was without material change at Marseilles; the corn market was dull and declining; wines were in good demand at higher prices in several of the principal markets. The bourse was dull, and on the 30th, prices gave way, fully 1-4—the three per cents closing at 68f. 80c.

ITALY.—The election at Romagna passed off tranquilly.

The Mayor of Parma issued a proclamation on his return from Paris, in which he reported the conversation he had with the Emperor. Napoleon said: Tell your population that my army shall never do violence to their wishes, and that I will not permit any other foreign power to do violence against you.—The Mayor adds these words: Make you arbiters of your own destinies.

Garibaldi had resolved to maintain strict discipline in the army of Central Italy. In an order of the day he says: I will cause to be shot any one who calls himself a Mazzinian, a Republican, a Socialist, or even a Garibaldian. He will have none with him but soldiers and Italians.

The Neapolitan Government had ordered the purchase of a large quantity of corn abroad.

The Cholera was spreading along the shores of the Baltic.

The following are the amounts of loans at present requested by the Governments of the Duchies: Tuscany, 120,000,000 francs; Modena, 5,000,000 francs; and Parma, 3,000,-francs. The city of Bologna has also been authorized to raise the sum of 60,000 francs.

The Tuscan Moniteur publishes a decree abolishing the Tuscan army regulations, and adopting those of the Sardinian.

Late advices from Rome say that the French Minister held a conference with Cardinal Antonelli on the subject of re-organization of the Legations. One French division only was to remain in Rome.

The Government of Bologna is said to have dissolved the regiments in which some of Mazzini's volunteers had attempted to cause an excitement.

The garrison of the Pope was on march to Pescho where troops were concentrating.

GREAT BRITAIN.—Few, or no policies of insurance had been taken out on the ship Great Eastern at Lloyds, the underwriters being generally unwilling to transact business until the completion of the trial trip.—There were some anxious to see the ship safe out of the Thames, but those in charge of her entertained no fears on the subject.

Lord Radstock publishes in the London Times a letter received by him from Richard H. Dana, of Boston, on subject of ballot in the U. S. Mr. Dana shows the benefit of the ballot system and explains that in America it has been found necessary for security against fraud to deprive it of the element of secrecy.

The investigation at Liverpool into the charge against Bontello, mate of ship Congress, of having caused the death of a seamen on board the vessel, resulted in his liberation. The evidence showing that the deceased died from natural causes.

The strike of the London builders still continues.

The London Times, in a leading article on England's defensive preparations, says she is now rapidly approaching, if indeed, she has not now actually obtained a position on which no assailant can hope to attack her with impunity.

The Paris correspondent of the London Times in a letter dated the 28th, says that a despatch from Zurich, dated the 26th, states that the labors of the Plenipotentiaries were going on slowly enough, notwithstanding the announcement made a few days ago that it was doubtful if any important point had been settled. Whether the fault is attributable to Plenipotentiaries themselves, the preliminaries of the treaty of Villa Franca, or to the Emperors in not having taken into calculation, in their eager anxiety to make peace, all the difficulties of the negotiation, no one knows.

Some people incline to the opinion that this delay is intentional, and the manner in which Mr. DeBourgency is acting lends some color to the suspicion. What the French Government will last have to do is simply to declare to Austria that it has done all that was morally in its power in favor of her proteges, or else it must dispose itself to impose them on the duchies by intrigue if not by force.

INDIA.—The Bombay mail of Aug. 5th, would reach England the day the steamer sailed.

Intelligence had reached Lloyd, that at Calcutta, on the 27th of July there was a cyclome in the Heogley river, and that two steamers and a number of other vessels were wrecked.

LIVERPOOL, Wednesday eve.—A Zurich telegraph of this date states that private conferences continue to take place daily between French and Austrian plenipotentiaries, and that there was a meeting between French and Sardinian representatives.

The name of the new Kingdom has been discussed at Zurich. Austria is willing that Victor Emanuel should be known as King of Sardinia and Lombardy, but will not consent that he should describe himself as King of upper Italy.

ZURICH, Aug. 31.

LATEST.—Private conferences continue to take place between plenipotentiaries for the past three days; the representatives of France and Austria have daily conference together. Yesterday there was a meeting of French and Sardinian plenipotentiaries.

The Prussian government was vigorously maintaining the prohibition to export forces.

It is stated that the Russian government had given orders to mobilize the first three corps de armie placed under orders.

National Agricultural Fair at Chicago.

CHICAGO, Sept. 12.—9 P. M.

The Fair of the National Agricultural Society opened to-day; weather delightful; entries are already very large; prospects very flattering.

Later from Mexico.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 12—9 P. M.

The Brownsville, Texas, Flag, of the 1st says: It is rumored that Gen. Miramon, with 3,000 men, had marched into San Luis Potosi. Marquese was in Zacatecas. Gen. Orlega had been killed in battle.

We hope our friends throughout the State will take hold at once and see that THE SENTINEL is placed in the hands of EVERY VOTER! Fifty or a hundred copies will not cost much. Let every true Republican take an interest in this matter and see that his locality is well supplied with THE SENTINEL for the Campaign.

The Worst "Phase" Yet.

The Richmond Enquirer, of September 7, the ancient and influential organ of Democracy in the Old Dominion, and down South, publishes in full the DOUGLAS manifesto, with the following apologetic introductory:

> Mr Douglas' essay can be regarded in no other light than as an incendiary document, calculated to produce nothing less than a repetition of the anarchy and bloodshed which has lately disgraced the soil of our territories. We publish it only for the purpose of pointing out its errors, and of warning the conservative men of the whole country against this last and most dangerous phase which Anti-Slavery agitation has yet assumed.

Mr. DOUGLAS, it is quite clear, has forfeited the support of the great body of Democracy South, by his "Popular Sovereignty" essay. In the language of the Enquirer, they regard this as "the most dangerous phase which Anti-Slavery agitation has yet assumed."—Think of Senator DOUGLAS being engaged in "Anti-Slavery agitation," and of the News and other Douglas organs aiding in the circulation of "incendiary documents"! This is the most amusing incident of modern politics.

The Slave Trade Movement in Earnest.

The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Press states that JEFFERSON DAVIS has formally announced his purpose to introduce a bill on the meeting of Congress to repeal the penalties in the law against the African Slave Trade. This will bring a new and startling issue before the people for the Presidential campaign of 1860. The same correspondent adds:

> "My information from the South, authentic and recent, is to the effect that not only has this traffic been re-opened, but it is now vigorously and flagrantly conducted. Some of the first men of the South are engaged in it, and it is asserted that a number of vessels have been chartered at Savannah, and are absent for the purpose of landing cargoes before the beginning of Winter. I forbear giving the names of the leaders in this enterprise, not because they themselves refuse to speak of their connection with it, but for other reasons not necessary to enumerate.
> A very strong sentiment is growing up against the law prohibiting this traffic, and I am assured that any attempt to inflict its penalties will be resisted on the spot. I repeat, upon most distinct authority, that the traffic is now vigorously prosecuted, and that hundreds of Africans are being landed on the Southern coast.—Owing to this state of things, the Administration have caused it to be ostentatiously announced that a coast guard is to be established from Charleston to New Orleans, and that a part of the Paraguay fleet will be sent into the Gulf for the purpose of enforcing the law. Deputy Marshals are to be stationed at all available points from Charleston to Mobile."

This is no "Black Republican" story. It emanates from the Philadelphia Press, a well-known Democratic organ, edited by Colonel FORNEY. The statements made by its Washington correspondent may well rouse the attention and prompt the action of the North and West.

How they Vote in Vermont.

Here are some samples of the way the intelligent electors of Vermont voted at their State election, last week:

	Republican.	Democratic.
Middlebury	224	71
Enosburg	143	27
Waterbury	234	97
Londonderry	423	50
Royalton	149	29
Woodstock	325	67
Hinesburg	219	33
St. George	20	0
Williston	159	22
Cornwall	173	3

The Republican majority in the State, on a light vote, is some twelve, or fifteen thousand. The Republicans have about as much more majority in reserve for the Presidential election of 1860.

VALUABLE CAMPAIGN DOCUMENT.—We have issued several thousand copies of Douglas' great article on Popular Sovereignty in pamphlet form, which is now ready for distribution. It is a work of twenty pages, and can be purchased by the hundred at twenty shillings, or two and a half cents per copy. Over twenty-five, and less than a hundred, three cents a copy. Single copies five cents. It is without doubt the very best electioneering document democrats can distribute, embodying as it does the great principles of democracy, and showing at a glance the difference between democratic and anti-democratic doctrines.—News, of Sunday.

The same "valuable campaign document," which the News so highly commends, as the most reliable exponent of "Democratic doctrines," is vehemently denounced by the leading Democratic papers at the South, as an "incendiary publication," embodying "the most dangerous phase of Anti-Slavery Agitation!" Here is a dilemma for the faithful. On the one hand, the Douglas organs urge them to "read and circulate" the Harper essay. On the other, the Administration and Southern Democratic papers warn them against having anything to do with such an "incendiary publication." No wonder that the "regulars" are awfully puzzled to know which of these conflicting oracles to believe.

THE LA CROSSE AND MILWAUKEE R. R.—We learn from the New York papers of the 9th instant that a meeting of the Second Mortgage bondholders, on the Eastern division of the La Crosse & Milwaukee R. R., was held the day previous, to consider the question of foreclosing on the bonds, unless the interest was paid within 60 days. The following resolutions were adopted:

> Resolved, That the interest of the second mortgage bondholders requires energetic measures for the protection of their interest, and that the committee proceed at their discretion to institute legal proceedings.
> Resolved, That a committee now in charge of the interests of the second mortgage bondholders have the confidence of the bondholders, and this meeting tender to them their thanks for the ability and zeal they have manifested for the protection of their property up to the present time.
> Resolved, That a contribution of $5 on each bond, to be paid as the committee may call for it, be made to defray the expense of legal proceedings, and the committee be requested to apply for a receiver at their discretion, and for the sale of the road at an early day.

NEW YORK CITY TAX LEVY FOR 1859—ALMOST TEN MILLIONS.—The tax levy for 1859, approved by the Board of Supervisors, amounts to $9,860,926. This does not include $193,000 in the original tax levy, appropriated to the use of the Commissioners of Record. Had this been included, the New York city taxes would have amounted to the enormous sum of $10,053,026. The total amount of real and personal property assessed by the Tax Commissioners, is $551,923,122, making the rate of tax $1 70 21-100 on every $100.

FULTON'S FIRST VOYAGE.—The Albany Journal states that, by the recent decease of the Dean of Ripon, in England, Hon. JOHN Q. WILSON, of that city, becomes the last survivor of the party of cabin passengers who accompanied ROBERT FULTON in his first steamboat journey from New York to Albany.

Correspondence of the Daily Sentinel.

LA CROSSE, WIS., Sept. 9th.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—The great North-west with her boundless and fertile prairies is becoming as household words. All look forward to the immense amount of trade and travel in that direction. In the Red River valley are millions upon millions of wealth as yet unexplored and untold, yet awaiting the hand of industry to bring forth into life that with which to sustain and make happy a new and glorious Northern confederacy. The Reciprocity treaty existing between the United States and Canada has given security and a sure guarantee for the increasing commerce rapidly springing up in the far off plains of the North. The British provinces naturally look Easterly, or South of the international boundary for all the commodities of trade and commerce, and it will require but little to direct their attention to State affairs. In fact, we see already a spirit of young America manifested in their social deliberations as to the course to pursue in matters of local, but yet public management. Political discussions tend to lead them on to a plan of self-government and as demonstrated by the subjects of Selkirk settlement we plainly see the ultimate result. The whole trade of the Hudson Bay Co. now comes through Minnesota to St. Paul and on through this city to Milwaukee. Your city, even with a small beginning, has seen the advantages to this State and the Railway doing the carrying trade, and as this is encouraged and fostered, Wisconsin and Minnesota will reap a rich harvest from the business.

The country along the line of travel north of St. Paul, and west of St. Cloud, are waking up to the advantages the increasing travel is giving them, and while the matter is fresh, cannot La Crosse and your city do something to encourage the extension of Railway communication to the south bend of the Minnesota River. The route to the head of navigation on the Red River, via La Crosse and the South bend of the Minnesota is a much shorter one than is now travelled.

The distance is some two hundred miles in favor of what is termed the "Air line of the North-west. The route from the upper Minnesota to the Red River Valley is said to pass through a fine agricultural country, and as the distance is so much in its favor, there must be, very soon, public facilities for travel.

The whole trade to the North-west, and Hudson's Bay, must sooner or later take this route. It is superior in every respect, and so much shorter than any other, that any more than facts need not be offered.—There is no probability for a better route than the one named.

The La Crosse Railway interest should look to the plans of opening up this direct trade with the Red River traders; for in a few years a large and profitable commerce will grow up. It is proposed to open this route by stages, the coming season and it then will be clearly shown that the Saskatchewan, Assineboine and Red River Vallies are less than two hundred miles nearer your city, via the South bend, than by way of St. Paul.

La Crosse looks forward with much interest in this project, and with M. O. WALKER and the Wisconsin Stage Company, DAVIS & MOORE, all obstacles, if any, will then be removed.

Look out for the fur trade of Athabaska.—La Crosse is to have a line of light draught boats to St. Paul, to run through in fourteen hours, in connection with the La Crosse Railway. Twenty-one hours from Milwaukee to St. Paul will be another inducement for eastern travel to go west via Milwaukee & La Crosse road.

The La Crosse road is one of the best built roads in the country, and the management unequalled, with but one exception.—The traveller should have all the comforts and conveniences that are possible, but the eternal cant of omnibus, hotel and steamboat runners are not to be endured. Newsboys, even, torment one to go on this or that boat, or step over to some particular hotel.—Now we profess to know that in travelling we have the right to choose for ourself and wish to say to the management that this plan of torturing the passengers by employees is a growing evil and should be stopped. The Upper Mississippi travel takes the first Railway train for the east, but when evils exist in the control and plans adopted to divest the traveller of his privileges, he is sure to patronize the next best mode of conveyance.

The La Crosse road has a strong competitor, and when one interest does not please the travelling public, they with good cause make the change for personal comfort.

EXTENSIVE TELEGRAPHIC ENTERPRISE.—The New York Herald of Friday last announces the completion of contracts, in that city, by the Western Union Telegraph Company, and the Missouri River Telegraph Company, by which the former company have become the controllers of all the telegraph lines west of St. Louis, and arrangements are now in progress and ample means provided to extend the lines of the two latter companies, under the general superintendence of CHAS. M. STEBBINS, Esq., from St. Louis to Fort Smith, 500 miles on the route of the Butterfield overland mail, and from St. Louis to Atchison and Utah. The latter is now in successful operation a distance of about 400 miles west of St. Louis, and the line to California via Fort Smith is in good working order about 300 miles west of St. Louis. By the latter line, which will soon open another section of about 200 miles, the press will receive very full reports of California news three or four days in advance of the overland mail at St. Louis; and within the next few months it may be reasonably anticipated that the California and Utah lines will become the most important sources of interesting public intelligence.

THE HARTFORD TRAGEDY.—The soldier who is supposed to have inflicted the wound by which young BANKS lost his life, was arrested at Windsor Locks on Monday, and taken to Hartford. He is a member of Colt's Guards, named JOSEPH WILSON. He is confident that he can establish his innocence of the charge. The death of BANKS has caused a good deal of excitement in Connecticut, and much indignation is expressed at the conduct of the military at Hartford. The Coroner's Jury returned the verdict that "CHARLES W. BANKS came to his death by a bayonet wound inflicted on his right side, on the 30th day of August, 1859, at Hartford, and we are of opinion that said wound was inflicted by JOSEPH WILSON, now under arrest in Hartford."

ACCIDENT TO THE HON. AMASA J. PARKER.—The N. Y. News regrets to learn that Judge PARKER met with a serious accident on Wednesday night, and from which his amiable wife and daughter were not exempt. They had been on a visit to a friend, Mr. HAVENS, at Fort Washington, when upon leaving in their carriage, the horses took fright, and in their course plunged down a precipice, overturning the vehicle and injuring all within. Mr. PARKER was severely cut upon his head and injured considerably in the side.—The ladies were less hurt, but are still confined to their beds.

"WOOLING" AN INSURANCE COMPANY.—One JAS. S. MCCORMICK, formerly of Cincinnati, who had his life insured in Liverpool for $10,000, and whose death was announced a few months ago, has "turned up" in Texas, engaged in sheep raising—having "pulled the wool" over the insurance company.

NEW STEAMERS FOR THE GALWAY LINE.—This company has contracted for four new side-wheel steamers, nearly as large as the Persia, and one of them now building on the Clyde, will probably be put on the line in May next.

NO PUNISHMENT is so great as prosperous guilt.

Crawford County.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

PRAIRIE DU CHIEN, Sept. 8, 1859.

DEAR SENTINEL:—In this modern age of progress, one does not labor under the disadvantages of travelling in the olden time.—Stages, post-horses, relays and the et ceteras are fast disappearing. It was with feelings of comfort and thankfulness that I found myself, not long since, speeding over the line of the M. & M. R. R. This feeling was short-lived, for I soon found myself at the western terminus, Prairie du Chien.

The following day I was off again on a trip through Crawford County, behind a good solid pony with an easy, comfortable gait.—Crawford County certainly surprised me.—From what I had heard, I expected to see nothing but bleak hills and barren plains—to see a reality in BYRON's famous line:

> "High aloft the rattling crags among which leaped the live thunder."

I found on the contrary large and well-cultivated farms, which have yielded a great amount of grain this season, any quantity of stock, and other evidences of a thrifty farming population. They have had a severe drouth for the past few weeks, and, with other portions of the State, have been visited by a very severe frost, damaging to a great extent the corn and potatoes. The damage is not so large as was at first anticipated, but nevertheless it is very heavy. One farmer told me he had lost two thousand bushels of corn by one night's frost. Notwithstanding this drawback by the frost, the farmers of Crawford will share largely in the general thrift and prosperity.

We returned to Prairie du Chien towards night, refreshed by the invigorating drive, and "none the worse for wear." In the evening a friend volunteered to act as chaperon, to take me to a "social," at the residence of E. A. SAXE, Esq., and give me an idea of society on the great Father of Waters. An agreeable surprise it was. I have seldom felt so much at home among strangers, as I did under the kind, genial hospitality of Mr. SAXE and his lady. All was real enjoyment; there was a "feast of spirit and a flow of soul." Music, dancing, and singing, with the charming faces of the opposite sex, filled up an evening's entertainment that will not soon be forgotten. They agree here with ADDISON, that society was made "to make man sociable to man."

The river is very low, but it does not seem to interfere much with business. Every boat is loaded with freight and passengers. But I am drawing to the end of my sheet, and the chain of thoughts must be cut off between you and VIATOR.

NEW YORK CENTRAL RAIL ROAD.—The following is a statement of the earnings of the New York Central Rail Road for the month of August, 1859, compared with its earnings for the corresponding month of the previous year:

1859	$602,151 07
1858	538,048 16
Increase	$64,102 91

The Central is doing a fine business, this fall, and being in tip-top order throughout, its managers look for a large increase over the earnings of last year.

Suicide of the Proprietor of the International Hotel.

For some days past, Mr. Alfred Freeman, proprietor of the International Hotel, and Taylor's Saloon, on the corner of Broadway and Franklin street, has been suffering from the effects of a slow fever, accompanied by excruciating pains in the head. He was attended by several skillful physicians, and, although they held out hopes of his speedy recovery, he seemed to have gloomy forebodings that he would never get well again.—During yesterday his wife and sister-in-law nursed him. About 3 1-2 o'clock yesterday afternoon Mrs. Gilson, his sister-in-law, who was in attendance at his bedside, and with whom he had been conversing freely upon various subjects, was requested by him to leave the room for a short time. She complied, and during her absence Mr. Freeman arose from his bed and locked the door, immediately after which he took a razor from the bureau drawer, and placing himself before the mirror cut his throat from ear to ear, and threw himself across the bed to die.

Mrs. Gilson soon returned to the room, and to her astonishment found it locked on the inside. Her fears being instantly aroused, she ran to the room where Mrs. Freeman was sleeping, and requested her to come and communicate with her husband. Returning to the room, the door still being fastened, they mounted a chair, and looked in at the window, and saw Mr. Freeman prostrate on the bed, with his clothes saturated with blood.—The Superintendent of the hotel was called, and the room door instantly forced open, when an examination of the body showed that life was extinct.

The deceased was about 40 years of age, and a native of England. He has left an interesting family, consisting of a wife and three children.

For the past two years, Mr. Freeman has been proprietor of the International Hotel and the saloon beneath, Mr. Taylor, his father-in-law, having retired, and given him the business. The concern was never in a more prosperous condition than now, so that pecuniary distress could not have prompted the act. His family relations were of the most happy character, and his prospects in life all that could be desired. For twelve hours previous to his decease the pain in his head had increased considerably, and the probability is, that in a moment of temporary insanity the terrible act was perpetrated.—N. Y. Tribune, Sept. 9.

THE REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS.—At the head of our columns to-day, will be found the best and strongest State Ticket ever presented to the people of this State. It is headed by a man whom this great and flourishing commonwealth has already tried for one executive term, and to whom the State to-day owes her prosperity and vigor—who has been tried and found to meet the wants of the people as an officer; faithful and honest, ever watchful of the interests of the people who placed him there, and possessing unequalled capability, which, coupled with great firmness and decision of character, have enabled him to preserve unspotted the integrity of a free, prosperous and happy State. Gov. Randall's re-nomination by the State Convention was unanimous, and deservedly so, as a tribute to his past official integrity, and indicative of full confidence in his future. We are proud to claim him as our standard bearer in the coming campaign, and have no doubt that November will usher in a new era in the history of our State politics, the election of every man on the Republican ticket. Heretofore have we spoken our sentiments in regard to the gubernational nominee, but again assure our readers that we consider him better fitted than any other man to discharge the duties of Governor.

As to the rest of the ticket we endorse the well toned views of the Sentinel, as recorded on the morning after the nominations were made.—Calumet Republican.

OUR CANDIDATES.—It is with no ordinary feelings of satisfaction that we place at the head of our columns the ticket presented by the Republican State Convention, whose session so harmoniously closed on Thursday of last week. From top to bottom it is a tower of strength, whose foundations rest upon the arch of truth and justice—there is not a man named who is not worthy of the support of every true Republican and patriotic citizen who has a desire that the best interests of the State should be cherished and protected. Unlike that nominated for defeat by the opposition, there is no man upon it so corrupt as to officially plunder the treasury and bring disgrace on the State; and no man who has not opposed consistently and firmly the pro-slavery crusade of the general Government upon the liberties and rights of the people. In fine, the ticket is the best and strongest one that has ever been presented to the people, and that it will succeed by a large majority, there is not a shadow of doubt.—Waupacca Register.

☞ HET HOLLANDSCH BITTER.—We have received another certificate out of Grand Rapids, Michigan, dated 19th June, 1859.

PETER DANE, a Hollander, desires us to publish in the Nieuwsbode, that the Holland Bitters entirely cured him of Indigestion, Fever and Debility, with which he suffered all of the spring. PETER DANE is grateful to the proprietors of this great remedy, and takes this way of recommending it to his countrymen.

CITY AUCTION ROOM.

THIS MORNING I COMMENCE A NEW sett of Advertisements by telling a Frenchman's Want of Confidence. An excellent story is told of a Frenchman who loaned five thousand dollars to a wealthy merchant when the times were good, which happily illustrates the want of confidence and its consequences when the times causes men to fail in business. One day the Frenchman called at the counting house of the merchant to whom he lent the money, and manifested much agitation. "How do you do?" enquired the merchant. "Sick, ver sick," replied the Frenchman. "What is the matter?" asked the merchant. "De times is de matter." "De times! what disease is that?" "De maladie vat breaks all the merchants ver much." "Ah, the times, eh?" replied the merchant, "well they are bad, sure enough; but how do they affect you?" "Vy, monsieur, I lose the confidence in everybody." "Not in me, I hope?" "Pardonnez moi, monsieur, (pardon me, sir,) but I do not know who to trust when all de merchants break several times, all in pieces." "Then I presume you want your money?" "Oui, monsieur, (yes sir,) I starve for want of l'argent." (money.) "Can't you do without it?" "No, monsieur, I must have him." "You must?" "Oui monsieur," said the little Frenchman, turning pale with apprehension for the safety of his money. "And can't you do without it?" "No, monsieur, not von leetle moment longare." The merchant took his bank book, drew a check for the amount on the good old Chemical Bank, and handed it to his visitor. "Vat is dis, monsieur?" "A check for five thousand dollars which you loaned me, with the interest." "Is it bon (good)?" said the Frenchman with amazement. "Certainly." "Have you de l'argent (the money) in de bank?" "Yes." "And is it perfectly convenient to pay de sum?" "Undoubtedly. What astonishes you?" "Vy, dat you have got him in dese times." "O, yes, I have plenty more. I owe nothing that I cannot pay at a moment's notice." The Frenchman was perplexed, for he did not want the money, now that he found it to be safe in the hands of the merchant he wished him to keep it. Turning to the merchant again he said, "Monsieur, you shall do me one little favor, eh?" "With all my heart." "Veil, Monsieur, you shall keep de l'argent for me some little year longare." "Why, I thought you wanted it." "I no vant de l'argent; I vant de grand confidence. Suppose you no got de money, den I vant him ver much. Suppose you got him, den I no vant him at all. Vous comprenez (do you understand)?" After some further conference the little Frenchman prevailed upon the merchant to retain the money, and left the counting house with a light heart, and a countenance very different from the one he wore when he entered it. This little sketch has a moral which the sagacity of the reader will enable him very easily to understand.

THIS IS A PERFECTLY PURE AND DELICATE WINE, from the vineyard of Messrs. De Venoge & Co., whose estate lies in the center of the far-famed Champagne District of France. It has hitherto been confined to the best tables of England and the Continent, and has only very recently been introduced into this country, where its rare quality, combined with the moderate price at which it is offered, is already achieving a success and popularity unprecedented in the annals of the Wine Trade.

Sold in this city, at the principal Hotels, and by all the leading dealers throughout the country.

THE PURE WINES OF HUNGARY.

STATE ASSAYER'S OFFICE, 32 Somerset St.,
BOSTON, July 1st, 1858.

Messrs. FREUND & GROSSINGER,—

Gentlemen:—I received from you eight samples of Red and White Hungarian Wines, which, at your request, I have submitted to chemical analysis. I send you the details with this letter.

From my researches it appears that these Wines are pure, and they contain nothing but the products of the grape. I can confidently recommend them to the public as good and pure wines, and as not so likely to become sour as the light wines of France.

I exposed my samples forty-eight hours to the air, in a warm room, without any souring having taken place.

The general character of the red Hungarian Wines is that of the Red Burgundy of France, and the White Wines (with the exception of the sweet or dessert wine) are between Hock and Sauterne, but somewhat stronger than either of these.

I am satisfied that, when known to the public, the Hungarian Wines will be greatly in favor, and that they will be much sought for.

Respectfully, your obedient servant,
CHARLES T. JACKSON, M. D.,
je22l451d3m State Assayer.

A SONG FOR SEPTEMBER.

BY THOMAS W. PARSONS.

September strews the woodland o'er
With many a brilliant color;
This world is brighter than before—
Why should our hearts be duller?
Sorrow and the scarlet leaf,
Sad thoughts and sunny weather,
Ah me! this glory and this grief
Agree not well together.

This is the parting season—this
The time when friends are flying;
And lovers now, with many a kiss,
Their long farewells are sighing.
Why is earth so gaily drest?
This pomp that autumn beareth
A funeral seems, where every gust
A bridal garment weareth.

Each one of us, perchance, may here,
On some blue morn hereafter,
Return to view the gaudy year,
But not with boyish laughter;
We shall then be wrinkled men,
Our brows with silver laden,
And thou this glen mayst seek again,
But nevermore a maiden!

Nature perhaps foresees that Spring
Will touch her teeming bosom,
And that few brief months will bring
The bird, the bee, the blossom;
Ah! these forests do not know—
Or would less brightly wither—
The virgin that adorns them so
Will never more come hither!

My Friend's Visit to Plainville.

FACTS FROM HIS DIARY.

BY GEORGE B. MARION.

James Keep was, to use a common phrase, "a fine old fellow." Everybody said so.—He was lionized by the ladies, and counted "head man" by the gents. Not a party passed off well if he had not deigned to honor it with his courted presence. Many a belle had tried to captivate him, but he remained insusceptible to their charms. Having wealth at his command, and being—at least the ladies said so—the "prettiest man in the city," he was indeed no mean "catch." Mothers tried their hands at making a match for their lovely daughters; but their efforts proved vain. He had thus reached his twenty-eighth year, and gave signs of becoming a bachelor.

One day in August, some two years ago, he came to me (his room-mate or chum) and said that he was going to Plainville, to spend a month. I was astonished; he go to Plainville, a little out-of-the-way village, in preference to Saratoga! I expostulated, but he was firm. He took all the necessaries for a fishing and hunting excursion and started. Two months passed wearily away, and my friend came home—married. He, that had fortunes laid at his feet, and on whom all the charms of coquetry had been tried, was won by the beauty of "a country girl." Society received a shock; the ladies got the sulks, and the gentlemen the blues. Our club held a special meeting, and dissolved. He that had been courted by the ladies, was sneered at. James remained in the city but a month and then returned to Plainville. His wife was pretty and accomplished, having graduated at one of the best Seminaries in the State.

Mr. Keep had an eccentric way of keeping his diary. He noted down every thing in such a manner, that when the book was filled, it would become a chapter of his life.—One of these diaries he left, among a lot of trash, that he donated me. It contains his visit to Plainville, and explains the enigma concerning his marriage. Please wait a second, reader, and you shall have it; should it not prove interesting, do not blame me, but the diary, for all I did was the copying off, and I also made a few alterations. Here it is:

It was one sultry morning in August, that I bade farewell to the dusty city.

"The sun had drunk
The dew that lay upon the morning grass," and the tender blades began to grow sear.—The trees rolled up their parched foliage, and as the burning air swept through them, emitted a by no means musical sound. Business was dead. Everything looked and longed for rain. The sky was watched by many an anxious eye, and every fleecy cloud noted; but they gave no sign for that long-wished-for blessing, rain. It was with a joyous heart that I took my seat in a railway car, and as we flew over plains and rivers, through hills and vales, at something more than a 2:40 gait, drank deep and long of the cool breeze that fanned my heated brow.

I was on my way to Plainville, where I intended spending a month with Tom Singleton, an old College chum. Plainville, as the reader doubtless is aware, is a pretty village situated on the skirts of a large oak opening, and on either bank of Crystal river; a few degrees North of 36° 30'.—Around it the prairies, dotted here and there with small oak openings, extend as far as the human eye can see. It is a lovely place, and the mundane sphere has but few that outvie it; at least, I thought so, at first sight. The sun was going down in all his regal splendor when I reached Plainville, tinting earth and sky with varied hues, and—well, it did make the place look beautiful to me; having never before seen a prairie sunset.

Twenty miles of my journey I had traveled in a stage-coach, whose only occupant, besides myself, was a young lady. We had quite a conversation on all things concerning the country around us, and I was sorry when the stage stopped before a large dwelling, and my friend alighted. She called the place Violet Dell, and gave me an invitation to visit it. I was hastily puffing away at a cigar when the stage-coach again "drew to a stand still;" this time before an oak grove,—and the driver informed me that my journey was ended. Following him up a graveled pathway, we came to a neat suburban cottage, half hid by creeping vines and thickly growing trees, on the piazza of which the driver set down my baggage, and, receiving an extra quarter for his trouble, departed. I was astonished that nobody came to answer my repeated pulls at the door-bell; and more so when I found that there was no living being in the house.

I was just on the point of starting for the village, a half a mile away, when a tramp, tramp, tramping caught my ear, and, by the faint light of the rising moon, I saw a carriage coming up the lawn. The coal-black, wild-looking horses that drew it soon stood before the door, and I was embracing my friend, Mr. Singleton. His wife said that they had taken tea at Mr. Coles', and had intended spending the evening there; but Hattie, who had just returned from a visit to her aunt's, informed them that a gentleman came down in the stage with her, and had told her that he was to stay at their house. Mr. Singleton knew that it was me, and they came home immediately.—Mrs. Singleton ushered me into a neatly furnished parlor, where she left me in company with her daughter Lilian, a fragile little prairie flower of some five summers. We two entered into a "small talk;" she told me of her pet rabbits, and her pretty garden, and was telling me what kind of a time she had had with Kitty Cole, when her mother interrupted her by inviting me to supper. Having eaten nothing since noon, I did justice to the viands that loaded the "snow-spread" table.

After tea, we formed a happy group on the piazza. Tom and I, having been parted for six years, did all the talking. We lived again our by no means halcyon College days, with their clubs, head-aches, &c., and gave each other our histories of the past six years. The clock chimed the midnight hour ere we parted, to dwell in slumbers sweet.

CHAPTER II.

Ere the sun had risen one morning, after having been in my new quarters some three or four days, I took my gun and other necessaries, and with Mr. Singleton's faithful dog Ponto, started up the river on a hunt. My luck was anything but good; and as the hands of my watch pointed to the hour of nine, I turned homeward. I had walked far, and not being used to any such exertion, was, in consequence, quite exhausted. Coming to a bend in the river, where the scenery was lovely, I threw myself, rather gently, of course, beneath the inviting shade of a tree, to rest my wearied limbs. Being hungry, I began to feed my imagination on all sorts of idle fancies, and unconsciously commenced repeating Byron's pretty stanza in 'Childe Harold':

"To sit on rocks, to muse o'er flood and fell,
To slowly trace the forest's shady scene,
Where things that own not man's dominion dwell,
And mortal foot hath ne'er, or rarely been—"

"I shall never marry him, Carrie. I would rather live and die an old maid," spoken in a firm voice of feminine intonation suddenly interrupted my musing.

"Nor would I; such a monster. Why, Hattie, he reminds me of an old giant of whom I read when I was a little girl, and whose ugliness haunted me for years," chimed Carrie.

"He is a perfect fright; but because he has got a little money, and is an excellent farmer, father wants me to marry him, and I shan't do any such thing. Why, Carrie, he don't know anything; for he would never go to school; and I will never marry such a man," and the speaker seated herself and burst into tears.

"Oh, Hattie, I would'nt cry about it," said Carrie consolingly, "let us forget it and finish our sketches." And suiting her word by action, she opened a portfolio, and they both commenced at their tasks.

Peering through the brush that screened me from their view I beheld two young ladies, busily engaged in sketching the beautiful scenery, and carrying on an animated conversation. I would have left my cosy retreat; but could not without attracting their attention, which would not have suited my romantic taste. The lady, who answered to the name of Carrie, was the prettiest of the two, according to my judging. Her eyes were dark, and had a fun-loving twinkle, which, with the smile that ever seemed to wreath her rosy lips set off her pretty face "to a charm." The sportive breeze wafted her raven curls hither and thither, much to her annoyance—for she threatened to cut them off. In her friend I recognized my stage-coach companion, Hattie Cole; she was far behind Carrie in bewitching appearance and looked more matronly by ten years, though she had not yet attained her twentieth year. Her brow, which would have borne comparison with winter's snow, was shaded by a cloud of anxiety, making her deep blue eyes look sad and mournful. I felt my sympathy enlisted in her affairs, of which I had gained enough knowledge from their chat, to guess were going wrong, and I was determined to aid her, if it were in my power. The time passed pleasantly away; for I took quite a delight in reading their natures.

Suddenly, my gaze, as though directed by some supernatural power, fell, and I watched their little feet moving to and fro, like so many pendules. Horrors! my blood grew cold at what I saw. There, beneath the bench on which they sat, lay a huge rattlesnake! slowly he commenced coiling himself for the deadly spring. I could distinctly hear his warning above the rustling grass and garments, caused by the ladies swinging feet, and I could plainly see his barbed tongue dart forward and recoil. I tried to call to the ladies, but my tongue refused to give utterance to my words. I was afraid to shoot, for fear of hitting the ladies feet. The cold sweat of anxiety stood on my forehead. A moment more and he would give the fatal spring. As a last resort, I seized my gun, and in less time than ever before in my life, brought it to bear and pulled the trigger. Louder than the gun's report, were the ladies' screams.—Thinking that I had missed aim, and shot them, for I was not a very good marksman, and rather than have such an occurrence stigmatize my name, I fulfilled the passage in the Bible, which says: "The wicked fleeth, when no man pursueth."

I had not gone far, before I missed my dog Fido; but he soon joined me, with the lifeless body of the snake between his teeth; taking my penknife I robbed the snake of its rattles, which numbered ten, and let it lay. It was near eleven o'clock when I reached home.—Mrs. Singleton was quite worried about my long absence, fearing that some accident had befallen me.

At noon Mr. Singleton returned from the village, by the way of Mr. Cole's, with whom he had some trivial business matters to arrange, and brought with him the report of my adventure, which I have just recounted. He looked suspiciously at me as he told the story; and after he had finished, passed to me, across the dinner table at which we were seated, and from which we were recruiting our bodies, my handkerchief, and a note directed to me. It was an invitation from Hattie Cole to attend the sewing circle that evening at the house of Mr. Austren, and, also informed me that they, herself and Miss Carrie Austren, would then and there properly thank me for my heroic conduct. In my hurry to leave the mossy couch on which I had lain and done so good a deed, I forgot my handkerchief, having used it as a pillow.—That, and my dog Fido, had revealed to them their deliverer.

Mr. Singleton called me a "brave old man" in a sneering way, and also asked me when I was "going to settle down." I spent the afternoon with Lillian, roving through the garden and grove, listening to her childish prattling, and answering her many questions, and in Mr. Singleton's study.

A BLOODLESS VICTORY!!!

1,000,000 BOXES SOLD OF

MOREHEAD'S

MAGNETIC PLASTER

THIS ENORMOUS QUANTITY OF this Invaluable Remedy has been purchased by citizens of the United States during the short time it has been before the public. The reason for this extraordinary success is simply in the actual truth and value of the article. No one buys the MAGNETIC PLASTER without becoming its friend. It performs all that is promised, and carries with it its own recommendation. Truly this is a Victory—peaceful and bloodless—but we believe not less glorious than the triumphs of war, with its train of carnage and desolation.

The MAGNETIC PLASTER is undoubtedly the Greatest Strengthener and Pain Destroyer that Science has yet discovered. If you put this Plaster anywhere, if Pain is there, the Plaster will stick there until the Pain has vanished. The Plaster magnetises the Pain away, and PAIN CANNOT EXIST WHERE THIS PLASTER IS APPLIED.

Rheumatism, Lameness, Stiffness, Weakness, Debility, Nervousness, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia, Coughs and Colds, Pains and Aches of every kind, are IMMEDIATELY RELIEVED, and, with a little patience, PERMANENTLY CURED, by the magical influence of the MAGNETIC PLASTER. It is the simplest, surest, safest, pleasantest and cheapest remedy in existence. Its application is universal—equally to the strong man, the delicate woman, and the feeble infant. Its use is agreeable, and without annoyance or trouble. Its price is within reach of all—rich or poor; all may have it, and all should have it who are sick, and suffering in any way.

FARMERS and PLANTERS should always be supplied with the MAGNETIC PLASTER. It will be the Good Physician in any household, ready at all times and at instant notice.

Put up in air-tight tin boxes. Each box will make six to eight plasters, and any child can spread them. Price, twenty-five cents per box, with full and plain directions. D. C. MOREHEAD, M. D.,

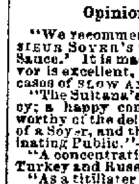
SOYER'S SULTANA SAUCE.

For Hot or Cold Dishes of all Kinds.



THIS MOST DELICIOUS and appetising Sauce was invented by the renowned "SOYER," on his return from the Crimea, and since his decease is manufactured by CROSSE & BLACKWELL, London, from the original recipe. The manufacturers simply ask for it a trial, convinced that it must add to the already large consumption, and that it will prove itself unequaled, either as a stimulant to the appetite or an aid to digestion.

Opinions of the London Press

"We recommend our correspondent to try MONSIEUR SOYER's new Sauce, entitled the 'Sultana's Sauce.' It is made after the Turkish recipe: its flavor is excellent, and it affords considerable aid in cases of SLOW AND WEAK DIGESTION."—The Lancet.

"The Sultana's Sauce is savory, piquant, and spicy; a happy combination of flavors and essences worthy of the delicate taste of a Sultana, the genius of a Soyer, and the universal patronage of a discriminating Public."—Observer.

"A concentration of all the piquant resources of Turkey and Russia."—United Service Gazette.

"As a titillater of the appetite this Sauce stands alone. It is a most valuable adjunct to Fish, Flesh, or Fowl, and should be placed on every dinner table."—Atlas.

"The Sultana sauce is a most delicious zest."—Mora Chronicle.

BOERHAVE'S

HOLLAND BITTERS.

THE CELEBRATED HOLLAND REMEDY FOR

DYSPEPSIA,

DISEASE OF THE KIDNEYS,

LIVER COMPLAINT,

WEAKNESS OF ANY KIND,

FEVER AND AGUE,

And the various affections consequent upon a disordered

STOMACH OR LIVER,

Such as Indigestion, Acidity of the Stomach, Colicky Pains, Heartburn, Loss of Appetite, Despondency, Costiveness, Blind and Bleeding Piles. In all Nervous, Rheumatic and Neuralgic Affections, it has in numerous instances proved highly beneficial, and in others effected a decided cure.

This is a purely vegetable compound, prepared on strictly scientific principles, after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor, Boerhave. Its reputation at home produced its introduction here, the demand commencing with those of the Fatherland scattered over the face of this mighty country, many of whom brought with them and handed down the tradition of its value. It is now offered to the American public, knowing that its truly wonderful medicinal virtues must be acknowledged.

It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have been impaired by the continuous use of ardent spirits, or other forms of dissipation. Generally instantaneous in effect, it finds its way directly to the seat of life, thrilling and quickening every nerve, raising up the drooping spirit, and, in fact, infusing new health and vigor in the system.

READ CAREFULLY! The genuine highly concentrated Boerhave's Holland Bitters is put up in half-pint bottles only, and retailed at ONE DOLLAR per bottle. The great demand for this truly wonderful Medicine has induced many imitations, which the public should guard against purchasing.

Beware of Imposition! See that our name is on the label of every bottle you buy.

THE SENTINEL.

COMMERCIAL.

MONDAY, September 12, 1859.

Money Matters.

The supply of Exchange is not very abundant as yet, but the banks, desirous of accommodating their customers on the least burthensome terms, to-day reduced the price another ¼ ℔ cent, the selling rate now being 1 ℔ cent premium. There is an increasing demand for currency, which is not over and above plenty, though the supply is fair, and the banks confine their discount favors to the offerings from strictly legitimate business customers. Bank discounts 10 ℔ cent. Outside rates 1 to 2 ℔ cent a month. Gold 1 ℔ cent.

The Chicago Press & Tribune of this morning, says:

The exchange market continues uncomfortably close at 1 ℔ cent. Some of our heaviest banks were to-day obliged to put off customers who wanted large drafts, till next week. Customers only are supplied at current rates, and sparingly at that, and outsiders may consider themselves fortunate if they find what they need at 1¼.

AN INTERESTING QUESTION.—The Missouri Democrat has seen on file, in the St. Louis Circuit Court, a declaration of suit commenced by the St. Louis Boatmen's Savings Institution against the State Bank of Missouri, for the refusal of its branch at Palmyra to redeem some $1,100 of its $5 bills. It is understood that silver was tendered by the branch, to the amount of $5 on each bill, (generally known as the "silver dodge,") but refused by the bill holder. It is the legality or illegality of this tender which the plaintiff wishes to test. Judges Leonard and Lackland are plaintiff's attorneys.

NEW YORK BANK STATEMENT.—The statement of the New York Banks for the week ending yesterday, as reported by telegraph, shows the following aggregates:

Increase in loans	$235,172
Increase in specie	277,949
Increase in circulation	130,654

The week opens with an active and rising market, notwithstanding the continued heavy receipts. Sales of wheat to-day exceed 25,000 bushels, including cargo of the schr. Theo. Perry. No. 1 spring advanced 2c at the opening, ruling at 75@76c; extra 2@4c, ranging from 75 to 82c for good club to choice Rio Grande, No. 2 4c, selling at 73c. The market closed steadily at these figures. The transactions in flour comprise upwards of 1,000 bbls at $3,62½@3,75 for ordinary, and $3,87@4,12½ for choice country Spring Extra. Oats were steady at Saturday's closing prices, with light sales and receipts. No change in other grain. Hides steady. Butter scarce and firm. Highwines unchanged.

Freights advanced still higher, which had a tendency to check the upward tendency in wheat. Vessels are now held at 7c for wheat to Buffalo, and the rate on flour by steam to the same port is 30c, making the through freight to New York 75c.

INTERESTING TO COMMISSION MERCHANTS.—Postmaster STEEVER, ever mindful of the best interests of our city, has changed the hours of closing the mails for Beloit, Freeport, and some other points between the latter place and Dubuque, so that the mails from Milwaukee will reach the places named as early as that from Chicago. By this arrangement, if our produce merchants will mail their grain circulars before 3½ P. M., they will reach Beloit and Freeport the same day, and deprive Chicago dealers of the advantage of being first in the field.

CHICAGO, SEPT. 10.—Receipts: 5,856 bbls flour, 86,756 bus wheat, 10,573 bus corn, 6,317 bus oats, 993 bus barley.

The demand for spring wheat to-day was very active, and the market was buoyant and advanced 1c. Winter grades, however, were dull, except No. 2 red, which shared somewhat in the firmness of spring. Upwards of 90,000 bushels changed hands, mostly for immediate shipment, at 85c for No. 1 red; 75½@76c for No. 2 red; 66c for rejected red; 75@76c for No. 1 Spring, 73@74c for No. 2 spring, and 65@66c for rejected spring—all in store—the market closing firm at the advance. A lot of 8,000 bus Kenosha spring was sold at 75½c f. o. b. Flour was also firm and active with sales of about 1,500 bbls at $4,00@4,12½ for good to choice spring extras, and $5@5,25 for choice white winter. The supply of spring extras to-day was rather limited, and the market closed firm. Corn was very firm, with but little offering. IMPORTANT NOTICE — TO — MILLWRIGHTS AND OWNERS.

The Excelsior Water Wheel Co.

ARE MANUFACTURING A NEW KIND of Water Wheel, patented 11th May, and 14th December, 1858, by J. H. Fairchild, of Vermont. It involves an entirely new principle of obtaining power, and of controlling the water, by which we obtain a greater maximum power than is afforded by any other wheel now in use. Some of the advantages of this wheel are:—

1st. We obtain the ENTIRE WEIGHT of the water, and have the advantage of the full head and fall, from water to water.

2d. It surpasses all other wheels in velocity and power.

3d. It is perfectly under the control of the workmen, either when used to drive a large or small amount of machinery, as the strength of the wheel is not diminished by reducing its motion, since it depends upon the WEIGHT of the column of water BELOW the wheel, which always remains about the same.

4th. It occupies less space than any other wheel—is placed inside the flume, near the SURFACE of the water, and is never affected by frost.

5th. The wheel is very durable, being made of iron, and can be put in any place and attached to Saw Mills, Grist Mills, and machinery of all kinds, with LESS expense than any other wheel. The velocity of the wheel is such that the expense of gearing up is avoided for nearly all purposes.

Together with the advantages above stated, we are ready to warrant the Wheel to possess a power equal to the following figures, for each foot fall of water:

6 inch wheel	52.100 horse-power.
10½ "	75.100 "
12 "	99.100 "
13½ "	1.31.100 "
15 "	1.55. "
16½ "	1.87.100 "
18 "	2.35.100 "
19 "	2.65.100 "
20 "	2.96.100 "
22 "	3.53.100 "
24 "	4.29.100 "
26 "	5.25.100 "
28 "	5.95.100 "
30 "	6.81.100 "

Wheels of the above sizes make from 400 to 1000 revolutions per minute. When sold, are complete with gate, pully and shaft, so that the purchaser has only to place it in the flume, which can be done with less expense than any other wheel.

The Company have competent workmen, who will put them in any place in workmanlike manner, at reasonable rates. The Wheels can be afforded at a less price than any other wheels now in use.
W. B. STURGESS, Sec'y, Troy, N. Y.

CERTIFICATES.

MIDDLETOWN, Ct., Dec. 1, 1858.

Dear Sir—In answer to your favor asking my opinion of the Fairchild Patent Water Wheel that you put into my factory for me, I take great pleasure in stating that it has exceeded my expectation. I took out a Breast Wheel 10 feet in diameter, by 9 feet Buckets, and replaced it with one of "Fairchild's Patent" 15 inch Wheels, and it gives more power, with no greater amount of water, and the motion is as steady as that of a steam engine. It has also the advantage of being very cheap and durable.

It operates under a 9 feet head and fall, and carries with equal regularity and steadiness a greater or less amount of machinery, such as is necessary for the manufacturing of fire arms, whereas an increase of machinery upon my old Wheels would materially lessen the speed.

It is without doubt the best Wheel I have ever used, and my experience in Water Wheels extends over a period of 25 years. Any one interested in Water Wheels will be convinced of its superiority (however skeptical) if he will take the trouble of calling at my factory and see its performance.
I am, yours, respectfully,
EDWARD SAVAGE.

Mr. Savage writes me again under date of Jan. 6th 1859. The Wheel continues to perform entirely well, and I am more and more pleased with it. It has not caused us a moment's delay since you were here.

SHELDON, Franklin Co., Vt., June 29, 1858.

Dear Sir—I have one of Mr. Fairchild's wheels in operation at my Machine Shop, which I can recommend to the public with perfect confidence, as possessing all the advantages which are claimed for it. The wheel which I am using is twelve inches in diameter. It gives more power, and runs more steadily than the twelve feet Breast Wheel, which I have heretofore used, requiring less water under the same head and fall.
H. CARLISLE.

Many other testimonials from heavy eastern manufactories may be seen at my office, where the public are invited to call and examine this wheel, and where they will at all times be kept on hand to supply the demand. An 8 INCH wheel is now running the Planing Mill and other Machinery necessary for the manufacture of Sash, Doors and Blinds at the manufactory of M. Y. King, Esq., (State Dam) Joliet, Ill., where any and all are invited to call and examine it under practical test, and a motion of 700 revolutions per minute. For further particulars please address

Medical.

THE GREATEST MEDICAL DISCOVERY OF THE AGE.

MR. KENNEDY, OF ROXBURY, HAS discovered in one of our common pasture weeds, a remedy that cures

EVERY KIND OF HUMOR, — FROM — THE WORST SCROFULA DOWN TO A COMMON PIMPLE.

He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases, both thunder humor. He has now in his possession over one hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.
One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.
Two or three bottles will clear the system of biles.
Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth and stomach.
Three or five bottles are warranted to cure the worst kind of Erysipelas.
One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.
Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.
Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.
One bottle will cure scaly eruptions of the skin.
Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the worst kind of ringworm.
Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.
Three or four bottles are warranted to cure salt rheum.
Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of scrofula.
A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the above quantity is taken.

ROXBURY, MASS.

DEAR MADAM:—The reputation of the Medical Discovery, in curing all kinds of humors, is so well established, by the unanimous voice of all who have ever used it, that I need not say anything on the subject, as the most skillful physicians and the most careful druggists in the country are unanimous in its praise.

In presenting the Medical Discovery to your notice I do it with a full knowledge of its curative powers, in relieving all, and curing most of the diseases to which you are unfortunately so liable. That most excruciating disease to an affectionate mother, is cured as if by a miracle; your own temper is restored to its natural sweetness, and your babe from short and fretful naps to calm and sweet slumbers; and the Medical Discovery becomes a fountain of blessings to your husband and household.

NURSING SORE MOUTH,

In the more advanced stages of

it extends to the stomach, causing

DYSPEPSIA

which is nothing but canker on the stomach; then the intestines and creating a sinking, gone feeling, and an indifference even to the cares of your family.

Your stomach is

RAW AND INFLAMED.

your food distresses you, and you can only take certain kinds, and even of that your system does not get half the nourishment it contains, as the acrimonious fluid of the canker eats it up; then your complexion loses its bloom and becomes sallow or greenish, and your good day is gone. For want of nourishment your system becomes loose and flabby, and the fibres of your body become relaxed. Then follows a train of diseases which the Medical Discovery is peculiarly adapted to

CURE;

Palpitation of the heart, pain in the side, weakness of the spine and small of the back, pain of the hip-joint when you retire, irregularity of the bowels, and also that most excruciating of diseases the

PILES.

How many thousands of poor women are suffering from this disease and pining away a miserable life, and their next door neighbor does not know the cause. I wish to impress on your mind that good old proverb, "an ounce of prevention is better than a pound of cure." In the

MEDICAL DISCOVERY

you have both the preventative and the cure, with this great and good quality, that it will never, under any circumstances, do you any injury. Yours truly,
DONALD KENNEDY.

Radway's Regulating Pills.

DR. RADWAY & CO., have recently discovered a method for extracting from roots, herbs, plants and gums, a nutritious extract of such wonderful nourishing power—which they have combined with Radway's Regulating Pills—that six of these pills will supply the blood with the same amount of nutrition as one ounce of ordinary bread; so that while the system is undergoing a thorough physicking, and regulating process, it daily becomes strengthened.

Persons afflicted with Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Heart Diseases, Fullness of Blood, and all Females who are subject to Irregularities, Hysteria, &c., are particularly recommended to use these Pills. They are pleasant to take—elegantly coated with gum—free from taste and will not gripe, sicken or weaken the system, or leave the bowels costive. Mothers nursing should likewise take one or two of these Pills once or twice per week. They will not only keep your system healthy and regular, but will protect your infant against Cramps and Pains in the stomach, and insure not only a healthy child, but will invest every child thus suckled, with a sweet disposition.

RADWAY'S REGULATING PILLS Regulate each and every organ of the system, and correct all derangements of the Liver, Bowels, Stomach, Heart and Kidneys.
